

AEMA ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

2018 Award Recipients

The AEMA Emergency Management Achievement Awards celebrate exemplary achievement by recognizing individuals and groups who have made remarkable contributions towards building a better prepared and more disaster resilient community.

This year, two organizations were recognized for their contributions to emergency management in Alberta.

City of Leduc

The City of Leduc's Emergency Management Agency was recognized for its dedication to emergency management and a continuous improvement mindset. Chief Clancy, Deputy Chief Kelly, Tabitha White and Mr. Unger accepted the award from Deputy Minister Brad Pickering on behalf of their organization.

South Central Emergency Management Committee

The South Central Emergency Management Committee was recognized for effective leadership in the development of the South Central Mutual Aid Agreement. Chief Ken Thevenot and David Mercer accepted the award from Deputy Minister Brad Pickering on behalf of the committee.

Congratulations to the 2018 Achievement Award recipients!
