

IAEM Alberta Region Certified Emergency Manager Prep Course and Exam Offering:

There are two types of certification offered: the Associate Emergency Manager (AEM) and the Certified Emergency Manager (CEM). <http://www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=certification/getting-started>

The preparatory course includes: Review of CEM program requirements (experience, education, professional contributions and more); explanation of the AEM program requirements; application procedures; tips for successful program completion; an overview of the AEM/CEM exam; the standards upon which the exam is based; sample exam questions; and a Q&A period.

- Purpose: To relieve exam anxiety, not to teach emergency management principles.
- How: Discuss the AEM/CEM exam mechanics; facilitate an interactive discussion of emergency management principles; cross-walk through practice exam questions.
- Who should attend? The AEM/CEM Exam Prep Course is intended for professional emergency managers interested in obtaining the Certified Emergency Manager designation. A Certified Emergency Manager is an individual who possesses the knowledge, skills and abilities to effectively manage a comprehensive disaster/emergency management program. That program can be in, but is not limited to, government, business and industry, military, health care or educational institutions.
- Note: The Prep Course does not teach emergency management principles.
- Helpful Resource: AEM/CEM Study Guide
- COST: Special rate for first 10 Alberta registrations is IAEM Member: $495 (US Dollars) and Non IAEM Member: $595 (US Dollars).
- This is the first time the prep course and exam is being offered in Canada
- Typically, the full cost is $495USD for prep course only and $395USD for IAEM members to take exam and $595USD for non-members to take the exam.
